

How to sign up for an Immunization/TB Screening appointment with the Student Health & Wellness Clinical Outreach Nurses

You will sign up for the Immunization and TB screening session online through iHawk. This process is very simple.

- 1.) Log into iHawk
- 2.) On the left, click Session Sign-ups. Then click Immunization Clinic (see below):

- 3.) On the calendar that appears, click on a day. Select a date from the calendar to display the available sessions for that date. The times for screening that are available are between 8:00 AM and 1:00 PM. The blood tests need to arrive in the lab by 2:00 PM so we cannot do the screening after 1:00- that is our last available appointment time. Don't worry; if we run out of available times, we will add more appointment days/times.
- 4.) After you pick a day, sign up for a time. Make sure that the time you sign up for does not conflict with your class schedule!
- 5.) Bring any immunization documents with you to your appointment, or send them in advance to internationalforms@healthcare.uiowa.edu Make sure your student ID is on the forms. You do not need to complete any TB screening form in advance.
- 6.) Student Health staff will try to email or call you to remind you of your appointment, the day before you are scheduled. Please put this important appointment in your phone or planner so you don't forget!
- 7.) The Immunization Clinic is held in the Student Health & Wellness Clinical Outreach office at G103 IMU. We are in the lower level of the IMU right next to the Java House coffee shop.
